

HISTORY SOCIETY

A two day history festival Yugantar is organized every January. It provides the student with a big platform to showcase their talents and also nurture their competitive skills. Its an intra college festival where music, dance, quiz and debates have evinced enthusiastic response from students and drawn the participation of college departments other than history.