SUB.: ONLINE COUNSELLING HELPLINE COMMITTEE

We are aware that Covid-19 has created an extraordinary situation for all of us. The timely Lockdown has been imposed to control the spread of this pandemic, Covid-19. The lockdown situation creates social distance and may result in a feeling of stress, helplessness, anxiety, fear and isolation and more specifically for those who are away from their families.

All over teachers have been engaged in online learning through whatsapp, e-mails, video conferencing, Google class, zoom and other such methods. The academic and related issues may be discussed with them. However, during the current time and situation some of the students may have some psychological, emotional and related issues. Therefore, "Online Counselling Helpline Committee" comprising of the following is constituted to provide Counselling to the students of the College during COVID-19 epidemic:
